Dear Vincent,

Last night's Starlite Chorale concert was an absolute joy! The residents of Cranford Senior Housing always expect a quality program when your group performs and you certainly more than met their expectations.

As always, each selection was performed in perfect harmony with exuberance and style. The group is professional in every way, from the blending of their trained voices to the seasonal attire they wear. The members of your group relate beautifully to the audience so that there is a comfortable feeling of warmth that permeates throughout the program. Our residents love that you perform both familiar melodies as well as selections that are totally new to them.

Your entire group is to be congratulated for bringing so much joy to so many people. Thank you for enriching our holiday season.

With sincerest gratitude,

Adele Gilman, Executive Director
